

Essex at War, 1914-1918

Hylands House, 14 September 2014, 10am-4pm

What's happening?	When?	Where?
Displays
Wartime stories from the archives of the Essex Record Office	All day	Terrace Room
Wartime Hylands	All day	Saloon and Drawing Room
Now the Last Poppy has Fallen – exhibition launch	From 12.45pm	Banqueting Room
Horses at War	All day	Stables Visitor Centre
Wartime films from the Essex Sound and Video Archive	All day	Chancellor Room
Re-enactors
10th Essex Regiment WWI Living History Group	All day	Front lawn
1914 Army Recruitment Stand	All day	Front lawn
Research advice
Trace your wartime ancestors	All day	Terrace Room
Children's activities
Poppies and Poems	11am-4pm	Front lawn
Postcards from the Past	All day	Study
Carriage rides
With Joe the Shire Horse	11am-12.30pm & 2pm-3.30pm	From the front of the house
Societies and projects
Western Front Association	All day	Library
Chelmsford War Memorial	All day	Repton Room
Chelmsford Remembers	All day	Hanbury Suite
Marconi Heritage Group	All day	Hanbury Suite
Stow Maries Great War Aerodrome	All day	Small Dining Room

What's happening?	When?	Where?
Performances
Now the Last Poppy has Fallen - performances of original music and poetry	12.45pm	Banqueting Room
Essex Yeomanry Band	11.00am & 2.00pm	Back lawn
Talks
The lights go out in Essex: August 1914 Dr Paul Rusiecki, author of The Impact of Catastrophe: The people of Essex and the First World War (1914-1920)	10.30am	Pavilion
Mobilization and land defences in Essex Clive Potter, local historian	11.00am	Pavilion
The role of women in Essex during the First World War, Mark Curteis, Curator of Social History, Chelmsford Museum	11.30am	Pavilion
Chelmsford's Great War memorial and some of those it commemorates, Andy Begent, creator of www.chelmsfordwarmemorial.co.uk	12.00noon	Pavilion
BBC WWI at Home - local stories from a global war, Stuart Woodward, BBC Essex	1.30pm	Pavilion
The evacuation and treatment of casualties from battlefield to Essex, Ken Crowe, former curator of Southend Museum	2.00pm	Pavilion
Stow Maries Great War Aerodrome, Ivor Dallinger, Curator, Stow Maries Great War Aerodrome	2.30pm	Pavilion
Refreshments
Tea tent - tea, coffee, cakes	11am-4pm	Back lawn
Hutton's Courtyard Cafe	All day	Stables Visitor Centre